RELEASE OF EQ TEENS MODEL

The model is focused on teenage pupils, who face a crucial stage in their cognitive and emotional development, which will influence their way of adapting to adult life.

The model presents a comprehensive framework on how to work with adolescents and how to support them towards the development of their emotional intelligence. The output is addressed to school personnel but also to parents and members of the community involved in teenage education.

PR5: HYBRID GAME PILOTING ACTIVITY IN CYPRUS

The hybrid game addresses students aged 11-15 and will aim at developing and nurturing 4 key dimensions of EQ in social relations i.e. Self-awareness, Self-regulation, Social awareness, Relationship Management.

Students and teachers in Olympion High School in Cyprus participated in a focus group for the game and provided us with valuable comments.
